Slave Boy Evangeline Anderson
Evangeline Anderson writes great other world books. I was a big fan of her Brides of the Kindred series. This book caught my interest. I loved that Haven and Wren were forced to pretend to be Master and slave.

I have to say Evangeline Anderson is a great writer. She knows how to tie sex scenes into a meaningful plot without making the reader lose sight of that plot. The characters are believable in their relationship and it's almost admirable how Haven tries his hardest to stay away from Wren sexually because of Wren's past as a sex slave and because of their order's rules.
